CHAOS . . . THEN

Out of the flood came reconstruction . . . house by house . . . street by street . . . the town rebuilt . . . until, unlike its former self, it became a dream . . . a beautiful place . . . now we reconstruct the laughs . . . the sorrows . . . the hurdled obstacles of our school days . . . until we reach our dream . . . graduation . . .

Gladys Haller

DEDICATION

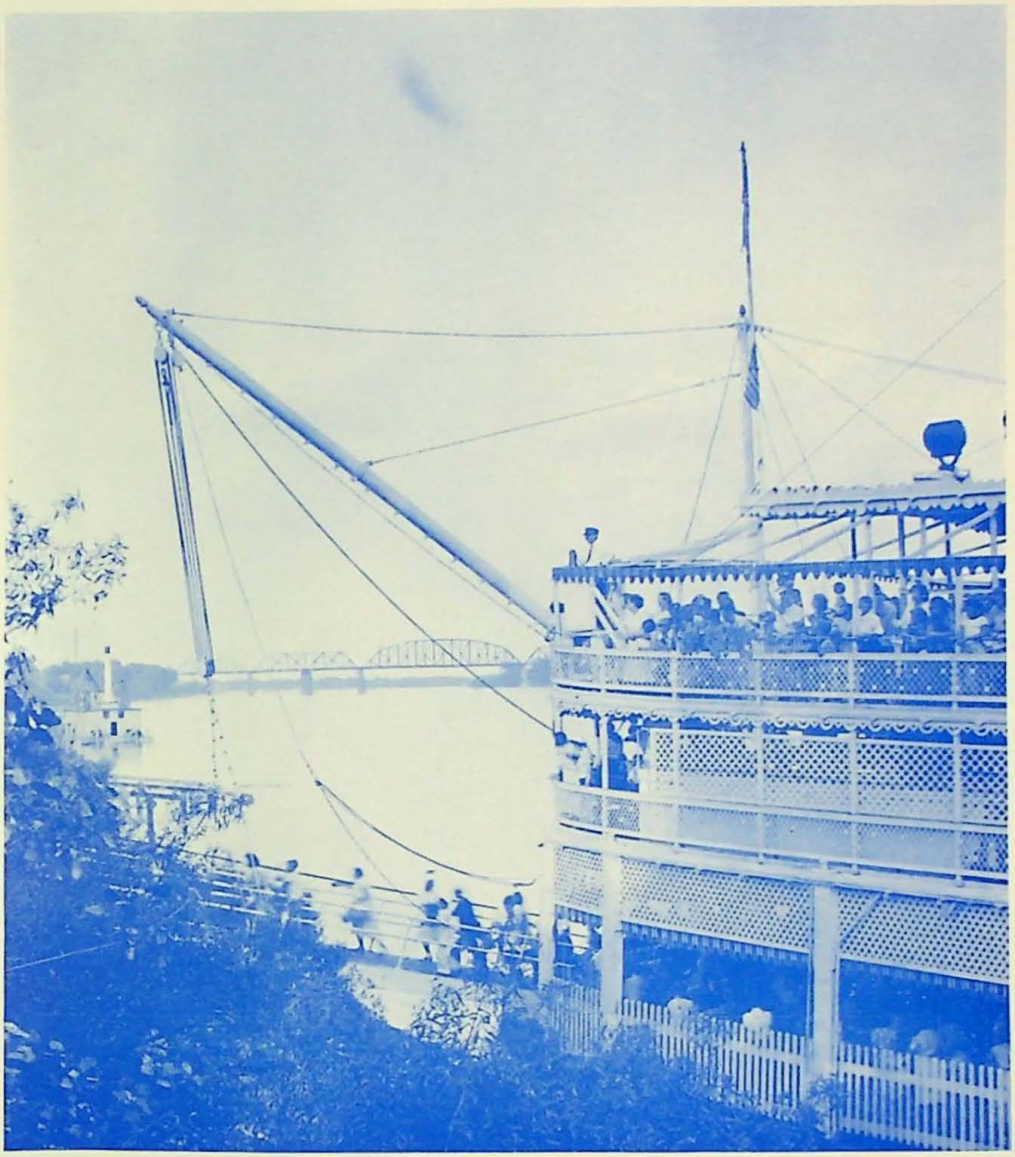
To Mr. Daniel R. Ehalt . . . one who has given so graciously of his talents and devotion . . . to the Journalism Department . . . and toward the building of a greater N. A. H. S. . . . one who will in future years . . . as in the year past . . . remain the understanding and helpful advisor . . . to whom . . . in memory of pleasant contacts . . . do we . . . the Class of 1938 . . . respectfully dedicate our Year Book . . .

Margaret Cannon

Here's to her

Whose name we'll ever

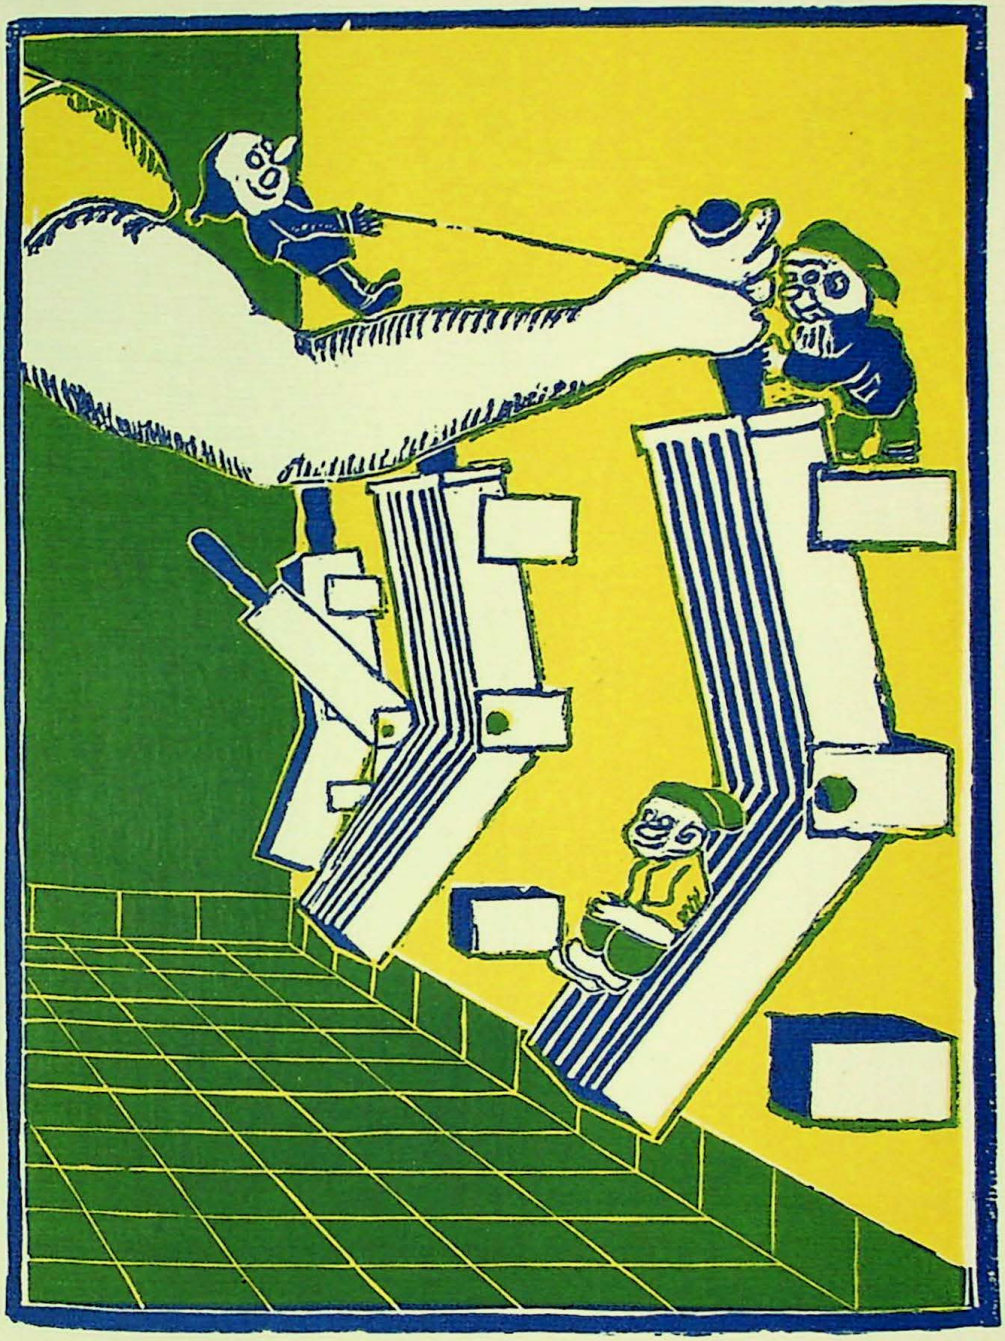
Cherish in our song . . .



Drifting with the current

Down a moon-lit stream,

BEAUTIFUL OHIO . . .



Wayne Ratledge

Sight Is Priceless . . . Light Is Cheap!

Protect Priceless Eyes

Save on LIGHT Lose on SIGHT

When cheap electricity will provide proper light for a few cents, there is no need to risk straining your child's priceless eyes. One of the surest ways of protecting eyes from strain is to make certain that proper light is available for reading or studying. Light itself is not enough; glare from unshaded light bulbs is harmful to eyes. The light should be clear and shadowless, like that provided by the new Better Sight Lamps. It's a paying · investment in future eyesight!

After High School

A thorough business training offers the surest and most direct route to profitable employment.

When business is good, the efficient secretary and accountant are the first to be needed by business organizations, and when business is not so good, they are the last employees to feel the effects of it. Correspondence must be kept up to date and cost of production and distribution must be known.

Bookkeeping, accounting, and business law at Spencerian are taught by a Certified Public Accountant.

Stenography and other business subjects are taught by experienced and well-educated instructors.

Write, telephone, or call at the office for descriptive literature.

SENIOR JINGLES

From a football star on the gridiron
To Vice-President of the Senior Class—
"Aw fudge," groans Sports Editor Reardon,
"Things have come to a pretty pass."

James Anderson's fun in the classroom;
On the dance floor he gives 'em the whirls,
But admits his favorite indoor sport
It talking to all pretty girls.

When it comes to wit and humor
One grad will head the line,
We laugh with every breath we take,
For Shirley's puns are Fine.

Guthrie and Kirk,
One fiddles, one plays,
So they've screeched and pounded
Through their high school days.

Surely George Joseph (Tubby) Walters
Will grow up and go on the stage,
For he's been swell in all three plays
He's had parts in, at his tender age.

Mary Hammer was that timid girl,
Treated with such abuse,
Who, instead of writing "Please Exchange"
On the Blotter, wrote "Please Excuse."

As the teen aged brother and sister
Infringing on each other's rights,
Hubbuch and Black in "Growing Pains"
Just loved to stage those fights!

Helen Stallings has a very great gift,
And to all it is no joke
That she knows how to win friends
And the best way to influence folk.

Croxall and English,
Two dashing Romeos,
Around and around they went
But where, no one knows.

Frankie Zoeller is so versatile,
He makes A's on his report;
He's the president of the "N" club
And pops in baskets on the court.
